

VVA State of Michigan Council Michigan Remembers Submission(s)

The intent of the Michigan Remembers book is to present positive, uplifting, and thought provoking articles, poetry, prose, and stories written by veterans or veteran supporters from Michigan or someone who presented their submission to a Michigan audience.

- Although there are no rules about submissions, content for publication is reviewed by editors. Reason(s) for non-publication (rejection) will not be given.
- Late submissions will NOT be accepted. Submissions must arrive not later than April 15, 2009.
- All submissions MUST be available electronically in text or Microsoft Word format, e-mailed, or on a readable media.
- Submissions will NOT be returned unless proper US Postage and return envelope is provided along with the request to return the material.
- There is NO payment or compensation for authors or contributors.

Michigan Remembers is published as a fundraising effort by and for the Vietnam Veterans of American State of Michigan Council.
